

Concert/Recital Manners & Rules:

- Wear appropriate attire. No short skirts or jeans.
- Performers should check in with the person in charge at the door when they arrive.
- Be sure to use the restrooms and be in your seat before the recital begins.
- Remain for the entire recital. This is a requirement of the Bellingham Chapter of WSMTA for all of the recitals it sponsors, as well as a general rule of etiquette.
- There should be absolute silence during the performance of all music. (This means no whispering, humming, giggling, etc.) Please turn off cell phones and all electronic devices.
- Applaud after each performance. Performers should acknowledge this applause by bowing.
- In accordance with copyright laws, video and recording devices for anything other than personal use are not allowed during a performance. No flash photography is permitted.
- Solo music MUST BE memorized for Chapter Recitals.
- Leave the recital hall only in cases of emergency. If an emergency arises, try to wait until there is a break between performers. Then slip out quietly, checking that the door closes as silently as possible.
